RE: CAD Release
Cross Gates Club

Dear Chuck,

We will be happy to forward the drawings you have requested for this project. Please review the conditions of this Limited License, and if you agree, sign and email this letter back to us. Once we receive the required payment and the release letter signed, we will then send you the files by email.

1. If the files are damaged please contact us and we will resend the files. Because of the great variety of system configurations we cannot guarantee that the files will work on your system, and cannot offer any assistance in this regard.

2. Fabiano Designs makes no representation that these files will be accurate or that they represent the conditions that will actually be constructed. Existing conditions must be verified. These files and the information contained therein may only be used for this project and may not be duplicated for any other purpose.

3. You agree to use these files at your own risk, and agree to hold harmless, defend and indemnify Fabiano Designs from any legal action whatsoever that may result from your use of these files.

4. The information contained on these files is copyrighted, confidential and proprietary information owned by Fabiano Designs. Under no conditions shall the information contained on these files, or any work you produce based on this information, be displayed, duplicated, distributed or marketed by any person or entity, including your firm unless agreed to in writing by Fabiano Designs.

Sincerely,

Kellie Fabiano
Administrator
