to do so to the other members. This notice shall be given by registered mail, stating the percentage interest owned by the member to be sold or donated, the price if the proposed transfer is a sale, the transferee and any other terms and conditions. If it is a proposed donation, the other members shall have the right to purchase the interest to be transferred at fair market value. If it is a sale, the right of purchase shall be under the same terms and conditions as offered by the third party transferee. The other members shall have thirty days from receipt of the notice to notify the transferring member of his/her intent to purchase the membership interest. Should there be two or more members desiring to purchase the membership interest offered for sale or donation, the membership interest shall be prorated among the members desiring to purchase said membership interest. Proration shall be based upon the proration of the membership interest existing between the members desiring to purchase immediately before the purchase of said membership interest. If the other members decline to purchase the membership interest, then and in that event only, the membership interest may be transferred in accordance with the original notice given.
